THE HUMANITY OF JESUS CHRIST

All three readings today support—each in its own way, of course—a reflection on the humanity of Jesus Christ and how that humanity played a key role in the drama of our salvation. Although not chosen specifically to coordinate with the other

We don't have a High Priest who is unable to sympathize with our weakness.

two readings, today's second reading does in fact carry forward the theme of Christ's humanity in a remarkable way. The author of the Letter to the Hebrews highlights the solidarity that exists between Jesus and us, precisely because in his human nature Jesus has known the same sufferings and testing that are our own experience. Because he can "sympathize with our weaknesses," we can "approach the throne of grace to receive mercy." For the author of Hebrews, the humanity of Jesus was an essential requirement for his redemptive death, as well as an invitation to us to find in Jesus someone with whom we can identify in our daily struggles.

From the Pastor's Desk

Dear Brothers and Sisters in Christ!

In October we celebrate the anniversary of Cardinal Karol Wojtyla's election as a Pope of the Catholic Church. Cardinal Wojtyla accepted his election and took the pontifical name of John Paul II. On this occasion, today after each Mass we are selling Pope John Paul II favorite cream pies, which he mentioned in one of his visits to his hometown Wadowice. From the bottom of my heart I would like to thank Sr. Weronika, Danusia, Maria, Józek and Stanley for help in organizing this event. We can always count on you!

I would like to thank all parishioners who participated (from May to October) in the Fatima Procession and Rosary Prayer. Thank you very much for giving an example of prayer and love for the Holy Mother.

Finally, with great joy I would like to inform you and invite everyone to participate in our annual outdoor Fatima & Rosary Procession" in Burbank on Saturday, October 30th at 7:00 pm. Our Rosary Procession will leave from the parking lot of Tobin Elementary School and it will end in the church. Please join us!

FEAST OF FAITH Only Say the Word

The bread is broken, the banquet is prepared, and now we are invited to the feast. Once more the priest holds the host, now broken, for us to see, and invites us to behold the one "who takes away the sins of the world." Truly blessed and happy are those invited to this meal, which is a foretaste of the heavenly banquet, the supper of the Lamb (Revelation 19:19). We respond to this invitation with a prayer to the Lord: we acknowledge that we are not worthy, but at the same time we are confident that the One who comes to us can heal us, body and soul. This prayer echoes the story of the centurion in Luke's Gospel. The centurion, a Gentile, asks healing for his servant, but does not consider himself worthy to have Jesus come under his roof—he believes that Jesus can heal his servant with a word, without even seeing him. Jesus is amazed at his faith. It is the same for us. We believe that Jesus speaks to us, comes to us, dwells with us, even though we neither hear his voice nor see his face. —Corinna Laughlin, Copyright © J. S. Paluch Co.

SELF-EXAMINATION

Knowing that Jesus' throne of glory is also a "throne of grace" from which Jesus bestows "mercy and grace for timely help" (Hebrews 4:16), today's Gospel suggests sincere self-examination: How do we approach Jesus and make our requests? What do we ask for: what Jesus wants us to do or, like James and John today, do we demand "whatever we want" from Jesus? Does the world in which we live and work focus our hearts on glory to the right and power on the left? Or do "the cup we drink" and "the baptism" we've received inspire us to gladly become servants of all, like the Jesus who has made us his disciples? Do we also avoid imitating the "indignant ten" other Apostles who rebuked James and John? Or are we also quick to see the errors of others and rash in passing judgment on them? How do we live in response to Jesus who gave his life "as a ransom for many"?

Great things happen @ St. Albert the Great!
